- 3) Cancelling your holiday and receiving a full and prompt refund of all monies paid to us.

No compensation is payable for minor changes. Minor changes do not entitle you to cancel or change to another holiday without paying our nominal charges:

If we do have to make a significant change, one which involves a change of resort, a change of departure point, and a change of departure time by more than 12 hours or accommodation to that of a lower standard of classification we will pay per person a minimum compensation of;

We must therefore reserve the right to cancel holiday arrangements at our discretion. Please see note below. Where your holiday is cancelled other than due to your default in payment, we will offer you the choice of either purchasing an alternative holiday of at least the same standard (if available), (and paying or receiving a refund in respect of any price difference) or receiving a full and immediate refund of all monies paid to us. In addition, we will pay you compensation as set out in clause 13 (a) above subject to the following exceptions. Compensation will not be payable and liability beyond offering the above mentioned choices can not be accepted where we are forced to make a change as above subject to the following exceptions. No compensation shall be payable if we cancel as a result of your failure to make up all payments due in full and on time. Please see note below. In all cases, our liability is limited to offering the above choices and the compensation set out as in clause 13 (a) (where applicable). We regret we cannot meet any expenses or costs you incur as a result of any cancellation. No compensation is payable where we cancel more than 5 weeks before departure. Very rarely, we may be forced to cancel or curtail your holiday after the date of departure where circumstances amounting to ‘force majeure’ (as described in the special note below) occur. In this very unusual situation we regret we cannot make any refunds, pay any compensation or be responsible for any costs or expenses you may incur as a result.

Special note – Force Majeure except where otherwise specified in these booking conditions, we regret we cannot accept liability or pay any compensation where the performance or prompt performance of our contractual obligations is affected by reason of circumstances amounting to ‘force majeure’. In these booking conditions ‘force majeure’ means any event which we or the supplier of the services in question could not, even with all due care, foresee or avoid. Such events may include war or threat of war, riots, civil strife, terrorist activity, industrial dispute, natural or nuclear disaster, adverse weather conditions, fire and similar events beyond our control.

- f) If the behaviour of any member of any party is causing or is considered likely to cause offence, danger, damage to property and/or distress to others, we reserve the right at all times, without prior notice, to terminate the holiday of the person(s) concerned or, at our discretion, that of the whole party. If, for example any coach driver, accommodation owner or manager, or senior member of our staff, considers that the behaviour is unacceptable they are authorised to terminate a booking wherever and whenever necessary and require the person(s) to leave the accommodation or property. In this situation, we will have no further responsibility to award such person(s) including any return travel arrangements. We accept responsibility for the act and/or omissions of our employees, agents and suppliers when acting within the scope of their employment except where they lead to death, injury or illness. Our liability however is in all cases limited to twice the price of the holiday excluding insurance premiums and amendment charges of the person affected.

Except where either transport or accommodation only is booked, we accept the responsibility should you or any members of your party suffer death, injury or illness as a result of any failure to perform or improper performance of any part of our contract with you by any of our employees, agents, suppliers or sub-

In respect of carriage by air, sea or rail and the provision of accommodation our liability in all cases will be limited as if we were the carrier/accommodation provider within the relevant international convention or EC regulations. It is however a condition of our acceptance of these responsibilities that you notify us of any claim within 28 days of your return from your holiday and that, where any payment is made, the person affected will assign to us or our insurers any rights they may have to sue any third party and to extend to us our full co-operation. If any client (except where either transport or accommodation only is booked) suffers death, illness or injury whilst overseas arising out of activity which does not form part of the foreign inclusive holiday arrangements nor an excursion arranged through us, we shall, at our discretion, offer advice, guidance and assistance to help you in resolving any claim you have against a third party, provided we are advised of the incident within 90 days of the occurrence. Where legal action is contemplated our authority must be obtained prior to commencement of proceedings and be subject to your undertaking to assign any costs recovered or any benefits received under an appropriate insurance policy to ourselves. Our costs in respect of the above on behalf of you and your party shall not exceed £5,000 in total.
